Things started off badly the minute the Gold Coast Percentage Boosters entered the field this week:

Potent omen of things to follow

Will the Gold Coast players even know the words to their own theme song when (if) they ever win a match? Their highlights reel is so awesomely, spectacularly terrible it is a wonder to behold:

Two examples of fantastic Gold Coast spoils...on their own teammates!

No surprises that no-one tipped Gold Coast this week. Their odds extended out to $17 before the game. And as we successfully avoided another draw this round, full points were available for tippers; a fact that Hugh capitalised on with the season's first perfect round netting him $12.21 in points and propelling him to the lead.

Lookalikes

AFL footballers on the one hand, mentally unstable people on the other. So hard to tell them apart sometimes. It is an absolute wonder that Fevola isn't here

Gary Ablett Jr and Jared Lee Loughner, the crazed gunman of the January 2011 Tuscon, Arizona shooting

Ricky Nixon (the real life Dumb & Dumber) and henchman Joe "Mental" Mentalino (from the film Dumb and Dumber)

Brad Sewell and the schizophrenic inmate, Charles "Haywire" Patoshik from Prison Break

And a repeat from a previous year just because he is so deranged (Fevola that is) vs Robert Underdunk Terwilliger better known by his Simpsons stage name Sideshow Bob,
